

CSAV announces interim dividend of US$ 450 million

Santiago, October 4, 2021. The board of the Compañía Sud Americana de Vapores (CSAV) approved, in an extraordinary board meeting, the payment of an interim dividend for a total of US$ 450 million, equivalent to approximately US$ 0.00877 per share.

“CSAV has achieved positive results in its container transport business through its investment in Hapag-Lloyd, the fifth largest shipping company in the world. This dividend is a recognition to our shareholders, many of whom have been with us for years, supported us in our capital increases and trusted our business strategy” said CSAV’s CEO Óscar Hasbún.

This dividend will be paid to shareholders in October 20th, at the exchange rate published on the 14th of the same month, charged to the profits of the year 2021 and will be financed with bank debt, which will be covered with the future income from Hapag-Lloyd to be received during the first semester of 2022.

This payment is added to the distribution of US$170 million made in the first semester of this year.
